

First place in Athens Eurolymp for G. Delikouras.

Athens, March 2010. The Hellenic Sailing Federation organized from 10-14 of March the "Athens Eurolymp Week 2010", the biggest international sailing event in Greece, in which participated 272 athletes from 15 countries. This year was the first time in the history of the event that the Paralympic category 2.4mR became open so that all athletes could participate.

The Greek Paralympic medal winner Georgios Delikouras, finished first in the general classification, while two athletes from Italy won the other two medals. The athlete of Piraeus Sailing Club has already participated in 2 Paralympic games and 7 World Championships.

The preparation of Mr. Delikouras for the World Championship of 2009 support as basic sponsors Media Communications S.A. and Athens International Airport's company "Eleftherios Venizelos".
